This is a question which is best answered by the company which produced the software. On February 24, 2013 By: Jesse Ryan Nashville, TN— The Tennessee Titans have acquired cornerback Jason McCourty from the New England Patriots, according to the team's official Twitter feed. The Patriots have released McCourty. NFL.com's Ian Rapoport reported that the two teams agreed to the trade shortly after the Titans made the deal official. McCourty will join an injured Jason Frick (knee) and Malcolm Butler (ankle) on the Titans' depth chart at cornerback. Rookie Chris Hawkins started at corner for most of last season with Butler out. The Titans signed Josh Robinson and second-round pick Adoree Jackson in the offseason to fill out the cornerback rotation for 2015. McCourty started all 16 regular-season games in 2012, finishing the season with 25 tackles, one pass defensed and one interception. He made the Pro Bowl in 2011. McCourty is the younger brother of Patriots safety Devin McCourty. He spent his first seven seasons with the New England Patriots before leaving to join the Titans. On the eve of Darwin Day, the Festival continues to explore the ideas of Charles Darwin. Stories, arts, music and scientific presentations will be on display. There will also be workshops in magic and prop making, plus an art show of the strange and wonderful objects found in the natural
