New Player Motion Control A new controller scheme is also included in FIFA 22, in which more options are available at the base control level, as well as when players dribble, pass, shoot or perform other player behaviours. These features include the standard, Pro, Simple and Radar controls, which are available to players at any control level. Improved movement in player models, such as the ability to fully crouch while running without affecting animation, and one-to-one control of player models as a result of the introduction of HyperMotion™. New shooting mechanics, including the ability to play with or without the “hip and shoulder” and the controller sticks, aiming, and shooting are all subject to player’s movements throughout the match. New Player Behaviour Model The FIFA 22 Player Behaviour model includes improved sprint, acceleration and balance. The player model also reacts differently to tackles as a result of better knee and hip control. Control Schemes FIFA 22 introduces two control schemes: the Traditional scheme, which is traditional top-down, and the Touchdown scheme, which is designed for immersive touch-based gameplay that uses the controller to emulate the gamepad. New game physics FIFA 22 introduces enhanced physics, which uses the player models from the FIFA 19 engine to deliver stunning, authentic gameplay. The physics engine, combined with HyperMotion™, are complemented by custom animations, which deliver new, highly responsive, and realistic animations. Personalised Skill Rating (PSR) FIFA 22 introduces PSR, the personalized Skill Rating, which can be accessed after every match. PSR is an Elo-like system, designed to reward players who improve their performance over time. PSR can be compared to a players’ experience rating and can be found at the FIFA 21 Add-Ons Store. Visual Settings FIFA 22 features the FIFA Visual Settings section. On the Visual Settings menu, gamers can select and fine-tune the game’s features, using settings to change the ball trajectory, goalkeepers’ stutter, shot velocity, tactical effects and more. New Player Abilities FIFA 22 introduces Arsenal, Barcelona, Bayern, Chelsea, Dortmund, Ajax, Bayer, Benfica, Inter, Milan, Napoli, PSG, Real Madrid, Roma, Shakhtar Donetsk, Sporting CP, Tottenham, PS

- Pages Sunday, November 6, 2012 Last week I went for my 5K run/walk with George. That was fun and George kept right on pace with me even though he doesn't run. One of the things he enjoyed was catching bugs. He thought the bugs were hilarious. Here is a picture of me doing some laps with my camera. I took a picture every 5 laps as we ran. We decided to run around the park outside our house and George had a blast catching bugs. He thought the bugs were so funny. Here are a few of the bugs he caught. He even caught a butterfly too. He didn't stop until we were almost home. Then he ran around the house to say goodbye to his toys.
- Wednesday, October 24, 2012 This weekend George and I went for a walk to the Cottonwood Mall. We enjoyed the small exercise and the "car" part was fun for George. He ran around the car, climbed up on the rocks and enjoyed going to all of the places his big brother would. The best part was at the end when he got out of the car and walked up to us.

EA SPORTS FIFA is a global phenomenon which for over 25 years has brought the game to life for millions of people around the world. A product that has fundamentally changed the way we view football in this country and around the world. EA SPORTS FIFA Ultimate Team – All new! The entire FIFA Ultimate Team experience has been completely rebuilt and overhauled from the ground up. New roster updates, new card additions, enhanced gameplay, and improved FIFA Ultimate Team experience from a user interface perspective all combine to create the next generation of FIFA Ultimate Team. New Player Impact Engine – All New! For the first time, the player impact engine has been integrated into the game at a fundamental level. Now, when you score, when you fail a tackle, when you kick the ball, when you kick the ball out of play or when you receive an injury it is all procedurally calculated. This results in a greater sense of realism and unpredictability in the game. New One Touch Control – New! This is a big one. The new One Touch Control system fully incorporates the controller to the game. Touch passes are now controlled by real fingertip pressure on a controller and the system adapts to the real feel of each player and passes. As a result, you can now play at a higher tempo with passing and ball control, as well as execute more precise and controlled dribbling and shooting. Improved Matchday AI – New! EA SPORTS FIFA 22 now allows for adaptive AI in the matchday engine. We have completely rewritten the way AI responds to players, formations and team sheets, allowing for even more enhanced realism and interactivity in the matchday engine. Additional development updates Player Personality This is the ultimate team collection, and the template from which players will be created, starting from a blank slate. Over 300 cards from over 100 leagues around the world. Player Visuals Every player now has their own unique visual design. From the variety of shapes, hair and skin tones, player faces and body shapes and animations, FIFA players have never looked so realistic. New Scorelines

Three new and streamlined ways to view your favourite stats. World Class Referees Brand new World Class Referee system that has been given the full FIFA DNA treatment. Referees control the flow of a match with intricate animations, reactions bc9d6d6daa

Create and share content on the FIFA Ultimate Team (FUT) app. Choose your favorite players, and then compete against your friends in head-to-head matches using a selection of real club teams. FIFA Street - Take control of cars, motorbikes and bikes in a series of adrenaline-charged off-road races across exotic locations. FIFA World Cup - Take on the country you fancy as you venture around the globe and join one of 32 national teams in the Fifa World Cup™. Control your squad of players on the pitch and rely on skill and guile to advance through the tournament and qualify for the semifinals. Additional Notes and features FIFA Impact Tactics Announced at the Electronic Entertainment Expo (E3) in Los Angeles on Tuesday, FIFA Impact Tactics puts you in the shoes of a tactical football manager, giving you the opportunity to step in for your favourite player and take command of your favourite club, in order to take your team to the top of the world's greatest footballing competition. Players will follow the direction of your orders, and players will show the same signposting as the player they are replacing. Pitches are often unpredictable, but you will be able to adapt to ensure your tactics are as successful as possible. You may also have the opportunity to develop and win the player's loyalty by backing him with positive game-play training sessions or compelling interactions with other Club members. Although FIFA is truly a global phenomenon, the majority of players are from the UK, US, Brazil, South Korea and Japan. Impact Tactics has players from more than 130 countries and counting. Players can be acquired from the Club Packs, and created using the 'Create a Member' function on the Club page. Players have personal statistics, cards, and value and will appear in the Club's weekly transfers. Clubs will need to create squads of 12 players to play games in online and offline modes. Rivals Match Engine & Team Building - New for FIFA 21 - The Rivals Match Engine gives you the opportunity to take on fellow managers for the chance to win rare content, money and glory. And as you win, you'll gain experience which will allow you to ascend up the global league ladder, all in-between the challenge of 'Challenge of the week', Career modes and Friendly matches. You'll have the opportunity to take on all your rivals in a series of thrilling matches, whilst winning, losing
