How do I get to the update UI? Step 1 - Have to go to the Update Device screen, and select "All Apps and Updates". Then you have to open notepad and copy the string of the install in the update tab. Step 2 - Go to the web site and use IE to navigate to the. To enable In-Place Upgrade with SCCM you need to update a Windows mobile device with a specific version number. Here is an official Microsoft guide. You will also need to update the CIS source database with the correct version number. Fort Mill council says OK to reliquary dedication

Fort Mill City Council has approved a proposal to dedicate a piece of stone from the namesake of the area, the Mad Anthony Wayne Trail, and a memorial to a local soldier. The property donated by the Fort Mill-Ditsy American Legion Post 45 in 2004 for the public trail was about 1.5 acres in size, and was surrounded by water. The post's commander, Mike Wixson, and another Legion member, Mark Shaffer, explained a new water line, and a new water reservoir for the city were coming into the area, leaving the land a potential liability with the city, and the group offered the land to the city for a better use. Dating back to the late 1800s, the Mad Anthony Wayne Trail (or simply, Mad Anthony Trail) features several sites associated with Wayne, a major figure in the Battle of Fallen Timbers. The bodies of several members of the Boys of '98, a youth organization of the Whig Party that fought in the Battle, were buried at the Mad Anthony Wayne site. Wixson said the Legion has been involved with the trail for several years. He explained the group was recently renamed to the Fort Mill American Legion Post 45 in honor of Wayne, and he said the Legion saw the dedication as a good one, particularly for the site because of the Battle of Fallen Timbers. He asked that the piece of limestone, measuring about 17 inches long and 11 inches thick, be dedicated as a memorial and a trail marker. Council approved the plan unanimously.

Back to Courthouse Council also accepted a request from the Courthouse Square Association, and approved a letter of intent to fund a study to determine the feasibility of building a new Courthouse Square. The Courthouse Square Association, which advocated for a Courthouse Square and public forum in the square, would like to see the square improved with more businesses
