

The Best Beach Restaurants in Ibiza

The Top Restaurants on Ibiza island for steak, sushi and seafood by the sea by Haute Retreats.

Ibiza's evolution from a late-night (early-morning, technically) party island to certified foodie destination means that visitors now flock to the White Isle as much for its culinary offering as its club scene. But with every cove, bay and stretch of sand now boasting some sort of beach restaurant, just how do you pick the right sea-side watering hole for you?

Haute Retreats selected the lowdown on the island's best beach restaurants. Whether you're looking for a Mediterranean lunch with a view, or sushi under the stars, these are the top spots dragging visitors from the dance floor to the dinner table...

Chambao at Nobu Ibiza Bay

Location: Cala Talamanca

This restaurant is part of Nobu Ibiza Bay, and it comes with certain expectations. This beachfront chiringuito is, after all, bought to you by one of the biggest global gastronomic success stories of the past 30 years. It doesn't disappoint. Nobu Ibiza has carved a reputation as one of the most sophisticated hotels on the island, and, appropriately, design-led Chambao is a chic, intimate affair which spills out from a clean, whitewashed restaurant onto the sand. Highlights from a menu dedicated to fresh seafood and plenty of sharing plates include grilled octopus and Valencian paella.
